

Our Lady of the Rosary Fraternity SFO

*February, 2014
Volume 2; no. 2*

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Being trapped in the house with the cold weather made me do some much needed reflection!

St. Francis was devoted to the gospel and as Franciscans we are people of the gospel. There is an old saying "Scripture gives comfort to the aggrieved and aggrieves the comfortable." St. Francis truly believed and lived this and referred his brothers continually to the gospel as a base. We Franciscans need to make room each day for personal reflection using scripture as a springboard.

In scripture meditation try to put yourself in the story. Begin by asking yourself how you might have reacted to Jesus if you were in the crowd or living in the town. Would you have looked upon Him as the "young man down the street" who is now a little idealistic and just needs to "get with it"? Or would you have said, "Wow, this is great news. Tell me more so I can really understand and follow you." Would you have begun to be a Jesus follower or would you have just shaken your head and walked away. Be honest!

Sometimes it is easy to walk away because we do not want to be "aggrieved" by the scripture we have read. We tell Jesus He just doesn't understand when He is asking for change. Changing makes us feel uncomfortable and at times anxious. We try to tell Him that He asks too much of us in this change. However, the truth is we have become quite comfortable in our faults and faulty thinking.

Our anxiety comes from breaking out of our comfort zone. It is easy to avoid the tough calls Christ asks of us by retreating to our comfortable mind set in what we are about. Yet Christ tells us that His love is always present to help us overcome our "comfort zone."

Valentine's Day is just around the corner and our Divine Valentine is eternally with us to help us tackle our faults and seek to understand His will for us. He is the eternal gift of love for each of us always.

*Pax Bonum
Chris Wells, Minister*
